

Jennifer Jean-Gilles

Principal

jjean-gilles@offitkurman.com

Washington, D.C. – 240.507.1747

Jennifer Jean-Gilles' practice in real estate law emphasizes resolving landlord-tenant disputes, specifically, representing landlords of all sizes in residential and commercial litigation. Her representation also includes lease drafting, resolving fair housing disputes and prosecuting breach of lease actions. In addition, Jennifer spent several years managing affordable housing sites. She has experience with Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) properties, recertifications and lease disputes.

Prior to joining Offit Kurman, Jennifer worked as a prosecutor at both the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia and the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office. She has tried numerous cases including both bench and jury trials.

Education

- Widener University Delaware Law School (J.D.)
- Drexel University (B.S.)

State Bar Admissions

- District of Columbia

Professional Affiliations

- Real Estate, Housing, and Land Use Section of the D.C. Bar Association
- D.C. Bar Association
- National Black Prosecutors Association Foundation, Treasurer

Services

- Landlord Representation
- Property Management