- Acceptance of association policies

Personal Attributes

- Keen foresight and strategic thinking
- Commitment to the organization and the industry
- Expertise and experience in the industry
- Open-mindedness
- Excellent collaboration skills
- An earned reputation for integrity and honesty

Board Responsibilities

The GALA Board of Directors is responsible for the strategic direction of the association. The committee convenes monthly (virtually) to discuss the association's goals and priorities.

The board is responsible for the following:

- Deciding matters of association policy, direction, and strategy
- Identifying and addressing short- and long-term association opportunities, threats, and priorities
- Establishing and dissolving committees, task forces, and working groups
- Serving as board liaisons on strategic member committees
- Providing effective financial oversight
- Assessing the association's Executive Director

Board members participate in executive sub-committees such as governance and finance, and as liaisons on member committees such as member programs. During their tenure, board members should be prepared to devote time to GALA-related activities including:

- Regularly scheduled virtual board meetings
- Annual in-person board meeting (in conjunction with GALA's annual conference)
- Other potential face-to-face meetings often co-located with major industry events
- Participation in member engagement initiatives and committees
- Leadership on specific association initiatives

Board members devote 3-8 hours per month to GALA volunteer work, including subcommittees.
