2024 SOUTHERN AMUSEMENT
& ENTERTAINMENT EXPO
Education Day
Tuesday, August 20, 2024

1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

Kiosk/Player Card/TITO Systems: AMOA Past President Sam Westgate will moderate an industry-driven discussion panel that will cover a variety of topics, including kiosks, player cards, and TITO ticketing systems, regulations, best practices, and how best to implement this new technology into your distributed route business.

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Gaming Legislative Update: Learn what's happening around the country with gaming. Our speaker, Paul Jensen, is a leading gaming lawyer with extensive experience counseling casino owners, operators, suppliers, lenders, and institutional investors in all aspects of gaming regulatory law. Paul also assists businesses with corporate and securities issues and helps high-net-worth individuals and families with their estate planning needs. Paul has been practicing law for over 20 years. As co-chair of Taft's Gaming industry group, Paul works with clients in all areas of the gaming industry on licensing, acquisitions and dispositions, financing transactions, administrative hearings, compliance plans, internal investigations, and general corporate governance. He also works closely with state and local gaming regulatory agencies and has significant experience drafting gaming law statutes, administrative rules, and policies. Paul has experience resolving gaming-related matters across various jurisdictions, including the United States, Canada, and Europe. Paul is a go-to resource for casino and gaming issues and has been quoted in publications such as the Chicago Tribune and Gambling Compliance. Paul also co-wrote an article with Taft colleague Erin Lynch Cordier in The International Comparative Legal Guide to Gambling 2018. Paul is the co-founder and former co-chairperson of the Chicago Bar Association's Gaming Practice Committee and lectures frequently on gaming law issues at Roosevelt University.
