

Inclusion and Behavior Support Program Georgia SEEDS for Success Helpline

We support early childhood professionals at all levels through training and coaching to promote successful inclusion and social-emotional development for all children.

The Inclusion Behavior Support Program uses the Pyramid Model for supporting classroom practices in working to prevent or address challenging behaviors.

National Center for Pyramid Model Innovations

Inclusion and Behavior Support Specialists are trained in best practices in child development, inclusion, and social emotional development to support early learning professionals so that they can meet the needs of all children.

Coaching Services

- Practice Based Coaching Model
- Coaches provide support through observation, action planning and reflection/feedback
- Directors, teachers, and family providers can all receive coaching
- Coaching typically lasts 3-5 months
- In person & virtual

Professional Development

- Trainings are provided both publicly and privately for ECE professionals. Training topics include:
- Inclusion Practices
 - Nurturing Relationships
 - High Quality Environments
 - Defining Challenging Behavior

To request training for your program, email inclusion@dec.al.ga.gov

Georgia SEEDS for Success Helpline

- Contact SEEDS for Success to access these services:
- Identifying inclusive childcare options for families
 - Referrals to community resource agencies (i.e. Babies Can't Wait, Preschool Intervention)
 - Free on-site or virtual professional development
 - Coaching on developing inclusive classroom practices and preventing/addressing challenging behavior
 - Support in facilitating the behavior support plan process

Contact the Helpline to request training, resources, or coaching support at 1.833.354.4357 or inclusion@dec.al.ga.gov