Candidate Questionnaire:

1. Do you own rental property? Yes or No (No)
 (If so, please answer questions 2&3, if not, please skip to question #4.)
2. What type of rental properties do you own? NA
3. How many units? -
4. Have you ever owned a business? If Yes, its name: -
5. Have you ever managed a business? If yes, its name: -
6. Have you ever filed for bankruptcy? Yes or No (No)
7. Have you ever rented housing? No or If so, when I last rented apartment in 1995
8. Will you commit to refrain from negative campaigns about rental property and subsidized housing? Yes or No (Yes)
9. What negative business impact would change your opinion on the cost of a law?

Any potential law should have a cost benefit analysis performed on it before passing.

10. Do you think rental housing is important in our community? (why or why not?)
Absolutely. Not everyone desires the responsibilities and extra work that comes with owning a home.

11. What will you do to encourage or discourage the development of affordable and market rate rental housing?
In general, a mix of price points in complex is preferable compared to all low prices or all high prices.

12. Do you believe that legislation with new requirements, should have a phase in time for the hybrid of business and housing that is the rental market? Yes or No (Yes)
13. Do you support legislation that specifically addresses criminal damaging of rental property? Yes or No (Yes)
14. Do you support focusing legislation on bad-actors, while minimizing the impact on the vast majority of well managed businesses? Yes or No (Yes)
15. Lead poisoning has decreased from 88.2% in 1976 to less than 1.6% in 2002, including double and triple counts of affected children, and with Ohio having passed the most progressive Lead poisoning law in the country in 2004, do you support additional regulations regarding lead poisoning? Yes or No (No)
16. Given that costs associated with complying with legislation impacting rental housing are passed on to the renter, thereby impacting rental rates and increasing the cost of housing, do you commit to work with the Apartment Association before passing such legislation? Yes or No (Yes)
17. Business is complicated by the patchwork of various municipal laws that impact rental communities, this is especially true when dealing with registration and inspection programs, would you support state regulations simplifying and unifying such regulations? Yes / No / Maybe (Maybe)
