 (If so, please answer questions 2&3, if not, please skip to question #4.)
2. What type of rental properties do you own? _____
3. How many units? _____
4. Have you ever owned a business? If Yes, its name: Adam Koenig, REALTOR
5. Have you ever managed a business? If yes, its name: _____
6. Have you ever filed for bankruptcy? Yes or No Yes No
7. Have you ever rented housing? No or If so, when Rented apartments between 1992-1996
8. Will you commit to refrain from negative campaigns about rental property and subsidized housing? Yes or No Yes No
9. What negative business impact would change your opinion on the cost of a law?

I do my best to only support bills that help business, not hurt.

10. Do you think rental housing is important in our community? (why or why not?)

Yes. It is vital. Not everyone is able to purchase, so quality rental stock is very important.

11. What will you do to encourage or discourage the development of affordable and market rate rental housing?

Get out of the way and let the market work. If there is a need the market will meet it.

12. Do you believe that legislation with new requirements, should have a phase in time for the hybrid of business and housing that is the rental market? Yes or No That happens now, unless a bill is an emergency
13. Do you support legislation that specifically addresses criminal damaging of rental property? Yes or No Yes No
14. Do you support focusing legislation on bad-actors, while minimizing the impact on the vast majority of well managed businesses? Yes or No Yes No
15. Lead poisoning has decreased from 88.2% in 1976 to less than 1.6% in 2002, including double and triple counts of affected children, and with Ohio having passed the most progressive Lead poisoning law in the country in 2004, do you support additional regulations regarding lead poisoning? Yes or No Not sure.
16. Given that costs associated with complying with legislation impacting rental housing are passed on to the renter, thereby impacting rental rates and increasing the cost of housing, do you commit to work with the Apartment Association before passing such legislation? Yes or No Yes No
17. Business is complicated by the patchwork of various municipal laws that impact rental communities, this is especially true when dealing with registration and inspection programs, would you support state regulations simplifying and unifying such regulations? Yes / No / Maybe Yes No Maybe
