

IAA INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS

IAA is always looking for new and qualified volunteers to lead the future of the multifamily industry and provide meaningful education to our members. IAA will work with instructors on dates to offer classes and will designate the location for the class. Those interested in instructing free education must submit a course submission form for IAA approval.

All interested in instructing a designation must instruct 2 free education classes with IAA first.*

- Must have earned your NALP/CALP Certification
- Must have earned your CAM Certification
- Must have a minimum of 5 years multifamily experience

- Must have earned your NALP/CALP Certification
- Must have earned your CAM Certification
- Must have a minimum of 5 years multifamily experience, with at least 3 years as a Property Manager

- Must have earned your CAMT Certification
- Must have a minimum of 5 years multifamily experience, with at least 2 years as a Maintenance Supervisor

- Must have earned your CAM Certification
- Must have earned your CAPS Certification
- Must have a minimum of 7 years multifamily experience, with at least 3 years as a Regional Property Manager

- Must have earned your EPA Certification
- Must have a minimum of 5 years maintenance experience in multifamily as an onsite supervisor or maintenance supplier

- Must have earned you R-410A Certification
- Must have a minimum of 3 years maintenance experience in multifamily

IAA Free Education

- Must have a minimum of 3 years multifamily experience onsite or as a supplier
- Must provide a course submission form for approval