The Indiana Apartment Association (IAA) is a trade organization that represents owners/managers of almost a quarter million units across Indiana, promotes the multifamily industry, and advocates faithfully for its members. IAA's affordable membership allows you access to a wealth of information and resources designed to support your company through staff education, supplier networks, and government advocacy.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

The Indiana Apartment Association advocates on behalf of Indiana's multifamily industry at the local, state and federal levels of government. IAA is the only group representing the interests of the multifamily industry at the Indiana Statehouse. IAA is your best resource for information on the successful operation of your multifamily properties by offering expert guidance in all areas related to the rental housing industry. As a member, you receive access to weekly government affairs updates, industry-specific analyses of how new laws impact the industry and resources to ensure you have the knowledge to keep your properties compliant.
