

NEWS LETTER DIVISION 8 FEBRUARY 2019

Dear Members of division 8,

We are delighted to present you with the February newsletter of the division.

1. The board of Division 8 agreed to put more effort on our division's visibility and attractiveness for our members. We also wish to have more interaction going on between the division's members. Thus, we will act upon the following changes:
 - a. We will design our bi-monthly newsletter to be more relevant and informative.
 - b. We will devote much more in our Facebook page. We invite our divisional members to check out and post on our Facebook page at: <https://www.facebook.com/healthpsychologyiaap/> or get back to us with questions, ideas, news and information. You can upload your own posts or send it to us and we will post it on our wall.

2. We are delighted to welcome the new associate editors of the divisional journal:
Applied Psychology: Health and wellbeing:

Yiqun Gan

Peking University, Beijing, China

ygan@pku.edu.cn

Jennifer Inauen

University of Bern, Switzerland

jennifer.inauen@psy.unibe.ch

Noa Vilchinsky

Bar-Ilan University, Ramat-Gan, Israel

Noa.Vilchinsky@biu.ac.il

Brian J. Hall

University of Macau, Macau (SAR), China

brianhall@um.edu.mo

Konstadina Griva

Nanyang Technological University, Singapore

konstadina.griva@ntu.edu.sg

Applied Psychology: Health and Well-Being

3. We wish to remind our members about the upcoming conference of the European Health Psychology Society which will take place in Dubrovnik, Croatia. Us, the board members will submit a symposium regarding implementation issues in health psychology. We encourage you to submit as well and join this important conference with us.

Upcoming conferences

EHPS Conference 2019, Dubrovnik,
Croatia

September 3 – September 7, 2019
