Who?

Dr. Roxana Sanders

Asst Supt for HR

&

Janel Bishop Dir. of Employee Relations & Recruitment

&

Lynda Parker Principal

All from Oak Park/River Forest High School

What?

This webinar will focus on how one suburban school district in Illinois attracts, selects, on-boards, and retains a highly-qualified, diverse workforce. The presenters will give examples of the specific recruitment strategies utilized to attract BIPOC candidates in support of the district's strategic priority to increase the diversity of our workforce to reflect the diversity of our student population. Participants will learn about the selection process used to ensure the best candidates are hired and how to create a positive, welcoming experience for candidates and new hires. The session will also include examples of retention efforts the district undertakes to improve the culture and climate so that employees will stay. The notion of the COW and how it relates to employee retention will be explained.
