SUPPORT

Access a dedicated team to help guide you through the digital sales process, backing you and your staff every step of the way eFuneral is for every funeral home - no matter your situation.

With hundreds of unique partners nationwide, we know each of them use our innovative online solutions differently. Our solutions serve as an extension of your strong, established funeral business, so they must work with you - not just for you - to help you grow your business successfully.

Funeral home partners are using eFuneral to:

Connect to families who may not have walked through your door but want to research online

Offer families a preneed planning solution even when your team is busy with at-need calls

Sell preneed even if your firm doesn't have someone on staff with sales experience

Save time for creative memorialization by having at-need families plan ahead online

Leverage tool as an in-person kiosk to capture customer details and convert on- or offline

Transfer transactional work to eFuneral, freeing up time for your staff to serve families

Increase your profitability and grow market share in your region at little or no cost

Select the service that best suits your needs.

Whether you're just wanting to see if our digital sales solutions are right for you, or you're ready to take advantage of all eFuneral has to offer with a fully customized experience, we offer options that fit every budget and business need.
