

Paul's Place
Participants & Neighbors
Bill of Rights

1. You have the right to an escort, drop and pickup time and location that is safe and secure.

2. You have the right to an escort free of charge.

3. You have the right to a guaranteed free escort.

4. The employees of Paul's Place have the right to their lives and the lives of their families.

5. You have the right to an escort free from food and other items.

6. For safety of the health department, Paul's Place has the right to refuse to accept any food or other items that are not safe.

7. As a participant of Paul's Place, you have a complaint about the quality of service or behavior of staff or other program participants you should call the following number:

8. You have the right to the support of the program.

9. You have the right to the support of the program.

10. You have the right to the support of the program.

11. You have the right to the support of the program.

12. You have the right to the support of the program.

13. You have the right to the support of the program.

14. You have the right to the support of the program.

15. You have the right to the support of the program.

Paul's Place seeks to EMPOWER southwest Baltimore community members to secure stable employment and build self-sufficiency. We strive to help those in need of income to connect to jobs and/or benefits as quickly as possible. We embrace an Employment First framework. Job search support is offered concurrently with traditional job readiness services.

We affirm that:

- Everyone is employable. - everyone has a skill set they can use.
- There's no bad job. Working demonstrates success. Any job is a platform for growth toward stability and financial self-sufficiency.
- Unique individuals will benefit from unique supports. We offer a range of supports to meet the unique needs of individuals who choose to use our services.
- No one is turned away. We strive to share information about specialized employment supports for special populations and to strong partnerships with specialized service providers.

