Group Standards and Expectations

1. Active participation by all members is critical to a successful networking group. Absences should be avoided whenever possible. Attendance records will be kept by the group's secretary on a weekly basis. Please contact Mark Schulte at 336-831-4181, Cheryl Redfearn at 336-408-1561 or Ashlee Thomas at 925-437-2950 when you are going to be absent.
2. Members are expected to demonstrate their commitment to the group through their consistent attendance. Each member is only allowed to miss a maximum of 3 times during a quarter.
3. It is acceptable to send a substitute in your place if an absence is unavoidable. No absence will be recorded if a substitute is in attendance and participates. Make sure your substitute knows the protocol of the meeting and is prepared to give a 60 second commercial about your business.
4. Our meetings start at 12:00noon – sharp! Arriving late (15 Minutes or more) to the meeting will be counted as a tardy, 2 tardies equal an absence.
5. If you surpass or exceed the allotted requirements of the attendance policy, your seat will become open to your competition.
6. Members agree to display a positive and supportive attitude with members, visitors, and directors of the Group.
7. Members agree to conduct regular one-on-one meetings with other members of the Group.

By signing this application, you agree to abide by the Kernersville Networking Group's Standards and Expectations. Completing an application for membership does not guarantee membership to the Group. If we cannot offer you membership at this time, we will retain your application, and may offer you membership in the future, if a space becomes available.
