

Karoub Associates Announces Emily Laidlaw As New Associate

Lansing, Michigan – Karoub Associates, one of the state’s oldest and largest multi-client lobbying firms, has promoted Emily Laidlaw from Of Counsel to Associate.

“We are excited to elevate Emily and look forward to utilizing her years of experience and vast knowledge of the legislative process on behalf of our premium clients,” said Karoub partner Scott Faustyn. “Emily has the ability to effectively communicate issues and shape policy; she will be a key asset to our existing award-winning team,” according to Faustyn.

Emily previously served in a Of Counsel role with a primary focus on the firm’s Education Practice. Prior to joining Karoub, she served as Director of Government Relations for the Michigan Association of Intermediate School Administrators and Director and Policy Analyst in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Emily has a B.A. from Michigan State University and completed a Fellowship with Michigan State University’s Education Policy Fellowship Program.
