

Controlled Decking Zone Procedures

OSHA 29 CFR §1926.761(c)(3)

(Rapids Code #0877) (O*Net/Soc Code #47-2221.00)

Name: _____ Signature: _____

Date: _____ Score: _____

Complete the following questions with the best answer, or circle the best response

- 1.) A Controlled Decking Zone may be implemented when fall exposures are greater than _____ feet and no more than two stories or _____ feet.
- 2.) A CDZ's control lines must be installed and maintained between what elevations above the walking or working surface (including sag)?
 - a) 34" and 40"
 - b) 36" and 42"
 - c) 39" and 45"
- 3.) What is the breaking strength required of the rope, wire, tape or material used to mark the boundaries of a CDZ?
 - a) There is no specified minimum breaking strength
 - b) 200lb
 - c) 500lb
 - d) 2000lb
- 4.) What is the maximum distance from the leading edge that the control line may be?
 - a) 90'
 - b) 100'
 - c) 120'
- 5.) Employees do not need to wear harnesses while working inside a CDZ.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 6.) All of the following are hazards directly related to a Controlled Decking Zone EXCEPT for:
 - a) Falls from unprotected edges
 - b) Slippery walking/working surface
 - c) Tripping over materials and tools
 - d) Air quality monitoring
- 7.) Covers for holes and openings in a CDZ need to support at least _____ without failure
 - a) The maximum load which may be imposed at any one time
 - b) Twice the maximum load which may be imposed at any one time
 - c) Four times the maximum load which may be imposed at any one time

- 8.) Metal decking and roof bundles must be _____ when environmental or jobsite conditions require, or at the end of the shift.
- a) Returned to the ground
 - b) Secured against displacement
 - c) Touch-up painted
- 9.) When should holes for skylights or pipe boots be cut into a standing seam roof?
- a) Immediately before the installation of the skylight or pipe.
 - b) As soon as the dimensions are agreed upon.
 - c) Whenever there's no threat of rain.
- 10.) Is the jobsite electrician allowed to wire a HVAC unit in a Controlled Decking Zone?
- a) Yes
 - b) No
 - c) Yes, if he/she has proper training

