MBCEA members receive FREE access to online metal building erection training. The 11 modules in the Quality and Craftsmanship 101 Series provide a general overview of each phase of the building process.

You can even test your employees online so they can be recognized as Quality Assured Craftsmen through the Metal Buildings Institute.

Members also benefit from FREE access to full training packages to be utilized by your company safety trainer like Bolting & Aligning, CDZ, Fall Protection Basics, GHS, and Rigging Basics.

Training is available at the chapter level and during the annual conference.
