City and facility background

The City of Maple Grove is a thriving suburb of Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota, situated in northwest Hennepin County. Maple Grove has become one of the largest retail centers and medical destinations in the Twin Cities with a growing business and manufacturing/industrial base. The city has a current population of over 72,000 with comprehensive plans for future growth and development.

The North Metro Regional Public Safety Training Facility is a cooperative owned by the City of Maple Grove. It is operated under a joint powers agreement with its four major partner agencies the Maple Grove Police Department, Plymouth Police Department, Brooklyn Park Police Department, and the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office. It is a state of the art training center dedicated to providing law enforcement agencies realistic simulations, hands-on training, and classrooms to enhance law enforcement skills, and public safety operations.

The Facility offers the following:

- Two firearm ranges, each equipped with their own firearm cleaning and repair spaces
- VirTra 300 virtual reality simulator for Immersive critical decision making scenario training
- Mat room for defensive tactics
- Reality-Based Training (RBT) area that includes:
  - Indoor space with a two-story moveable, configurable wall system and two simulated jail cells.
  - Indoor space also has garage access and space large enough for two squad cars.
  - Outdoor concrete training area adjacent to the indoor space.
  - Both spaces allow blanks, Airsoft, and simunition-style paint balls.
  - Moveable target system for less-lethal 40mm and pepper ball training.
