

One Day Basic Math for Water Personnel

Presented by Michigan Rural Water Association

This course is being offered for those operators who need to refresh their math knowledge for use in your water system and for any future water MDEQ exams.

Course topics include:

- Basic Arithmetic (Basic course)
- Typical Water Problems
- Areas and Volumes
- Conversions and Formulas
- Velocity and Flow Rates
- Calculating Horsepower
- Pressure, Force and Head
- Chemical Feed Rates (Chlorine)
- Including The Picnic Table Formula

0.6 CECs
Water
Technical

Agenda

8:00 a.m. Registration

8:30 a.m. Mathematics for water personnel

Noon Lunch Break

1:00 p.m. Mathematics continues

3:30 p.m. Class adjourns

About your instructor:

Mike Engels provides mathematics instruction to water and wastewater operators across Michigan. Time after time, students in those courses express their gratitude to Mike for his ability to convey mathematics in a way they can understand.