FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

William Bourlier Presented with NACCU's 2019 New Professional Award

Phoenix, AZ – April 26, 2019 – NACCU is proud to announce that William Bourlier from the University of Southern California is the recipient of the 2019 NACCU New Professional Award. Awards Committee Chair Wendy McCrory presented the award to William during the 26th Annual NACCU Conference in Hartford on April 10, 2019.

The NACCU New Professional Award is presented annually to an individual who has made significant contributions to their institution, the industry and to the association within a relatively short period of time.

William joined USC in March 2015. He brought a high level of energy and creativity to the operation, and poured himself into the campus card environment. William made it his mission to learn as much as he could through NACCU's listserv, web conferences, annual conferences, presentations, and networking. He currently serves on NACCU's Volunteer Development Committee and has served as a volunteer at the annual conference.

NACCU congratulates William Bourlier as the recipient of the 2019 NACCU New Professional Award.

About NACCU
