A BOOK PLACE

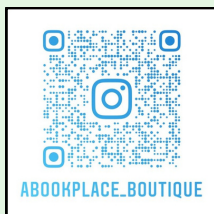

ANYWHERE WITH A BOOK IS YOUR BOOK PLACE

THE EAST END SHOW:
A BOOK PLACE

Welcome to A Book Place, where the shop is like home, but our pages are always turning! Nestled in historic, downtown Riverhead, between the north and south forks of Long Island, we're a cozy little independent bookshop with a big love for books and even bigger heart for our community of readers.

Whether you need a recommendation for your next great read, craving a lively book club discussion, or looking to join one of our hands-on classes, we've got something to ignite that spark. From local author engagements to community craft fairs to our curated selection of written gems, we believe in a space that brings people together, creates conversation and inspires curiosity. So come in, say hello, and stay a while — your next great adventure is just a page away!

HOW WE FOSTER OUR VIBE:

At A Book Place, we offer more than just books. Our vibrant shop is brimming with local art, our favorite bookish accessories, and a friendly, helpful staff. We pride ourselves on knowing a little bit about a lot of things, and we're always excited to help you choose your next great read. We're also often featured in local print media and highlighted on influencers' social media accounts, showcasing our events, classes, and unique services.
