who we are

Full of light, clean lines, and hundreds of little whimsical details, Golden Bee has become a source of joy in the local community and beyond. We are a team of creative minds who love to find ways to interact with our community. We pride ourselves on knowing our customers by name and remembering the last book they loved.

what we're about

Golden Bee is a Queer woman-owned business helmed by Casey Rose Frank. Casey's motto when it comes to the shop is "Cultivate wonder." Casey and her staff believe in providing a safe space for books and the people who read them. We want everyone who walks through our door to feel like they're home.

where we are

Since its opening in November 2019, Golden Bee Bookshop has grown into a new, larger and brighter location on 1st St, in the heart of the Gilmore Girls-esque Village of Liverpool on Onondaga Lake. We are just 5 minutes away from a NYS 190 exit, 15 minutes from the Syracuse Hancock International Airport, and 6 minutes from the Syracuse Walsh Regional Transportation Center (Amtrak).

our community

Thanks to the walkability of our neighborhood, we have many young families and couples, as well as many older families who have been here for generations.

We attract students from Syracuse University, Le Moyne College, and SUNY ESF, among others. We have partnered with many of our local public schools and our neighborhood library.
