TESTIMONIALS

"These things (author talks) normally aren't this good."

Ray Robertson, author of 1979 during our talk.

"You're good at this."

Jeff Danziger, author of Lieutenant Dangerous

"Yours ranks as my favorite event that I've participated in."

Brett Ann Stanciu, author of Unstitched

WHY CHOOSE OUR STORE?

Great question, thanks for asking.

We work incredibly hard to provide great events for our community and our partnering authors. We approach each event with a high level of preparation to have an engaging conversation with the author, that is both entertaining and informative.

We have a great relationship with our community and local media.

We want to give our community access to great events. We are working on a new model for virtual events that will not focus on it being a live event, but a recorded interview edited into more digestible content. This will expand the interview's reach and longevity, and... if all goes to plan, result in more book sales.

We love talking with and learning from authors!
