3. Shipping & Blind Judging

- Pack artwork securely in a reusable box. Mark the outside "AOE ART ENTRY."
- Size limit: 36 inches on any side and 40 lb. For anything larger, call before shipping.
- 2-D art should arrive ready to hang (framed or gallery-wrapped, with hanging wire).
- Cover or tape over any signature on the front for judging. NBBQA staff will also cover names and logos before judging.

After judging, please (check ONE):

- ☐ Return my artwork. I have enclosed a prepaid return shipping label.
- ☐ I will pick up my artwork (NBBQA will contact you to arrange).
- ☐ Donate my artwork to NBBQA for a fundraising auction.

Top 5 pieces may be displayed at the March 2027 NBBQA Conference and returned afterward.

5. Entrant Agreement

I confirm this artwork is my original work (or I have the artist's permission to enter it), has a barbecue or grilling theme, and is available for purchase. I give NBBQA permission to photograph the artwork and use the images to promote the Awards of Excellence, with credit to the artist. The artist keeps all rights to the artwork.

NBBQA will handle artwork with care but is not responsible for loss or damage during shipping, handling or display.

I am responsible for insuring my artwork. Artwork with no return arrangement that is not claimed by April 30, 2027 may be donated to an NBBQA fundraiser. All judging decisions are final.
