SUBCATEGORY	# OF ENTRIES	NAME OF EACH ENTRY
BBQ Blog Includes solely a blog, or a blog as part of a larger website. A blog authored by a single person, either as an independent entity or an extension of an existing media brand, OR a blog authored by a group of individuals, either as an independent entity or an extension of an existing media brand.
BBQ Website Includes, product, produce, personality, e-commerce, or similar. A BBQ-related online webpage that is produced by one or more individuals. To differentiate from a blog, entrants in this category are more likely to be database-driven rather than simply organized by post or in a journal format. The focus of the site may be primarily news, information, and entertainment, and may also be a product or retail site. The site may or may not contain recipes.
BBQ Audio Series Includes radio, podcast or similar. A series is defined as a minimum of six audio programs that originally were broadcast within December 2025 - November 2026. Each individual audio broadcast may be of any length. Three episodes must be submitted for consideration.
BBQ Video Series Includes, YouTube, Vimeo, Facebook, television or similar. A series is defined as a minimum of six video programs that originally were broadcast within December 2025 - November 2026. Each individual video may be of any length. Three episodes must be submitted for consideration.
Single BBQ Focused Video Includes, a feature film, an episode from YouTube, Vimeo, Facebook, or similar video may be any length and may focus on news, entertainment (including humor), instruction, or another subject. While submissions to this category may have been part of a series, please note that any video entered in the BBQ Video Series is not eligible to be re-entered into this category.
BBQ Short-Form Video (60 Seconds or Less) Includes short videos created for social media platforms. Videos must be 60 seconds or less and can focus on anything BBQ-related content. Each entry must be a single video posted December 1, 2025 - November 23, 2026.
