

POWERING THE GLOBE

WITH PROTEIN PERFECTION

USAPEEC is the only organization that serves the export interests of the U.S. poultry and egg industry and whose mission is to open new markets and maintain access to current ones.

Whether your company is a poultry or egg processor, a trading company that exports U.S. poultry and eggs, cold storage warehouse, freight forwarder, shipping company, or another provider of products or services that benefit from increased exports, it should be a member of USAPEEC.
