

Please send completed nomination to cece@npfda.org by November 8, 2024.

The National Protein and Food Distributors Association's Board of Directors is requesting nominations for 2024 Member of the Year and 2025 Lifetime Achievement Award.

The list of nominations made by the membership will be presented to the Awards Committee for consideration. Members of the Awards Committee will vote on the candidates and the award recipients will be announced Wednesday, January 29, 2025, at NPFDA's Annual Convention and Showcase.

Detailed information about our awards program can be found in the member directory hardcopy edition, including a description of each award and past winners. Previous Award Winners are available here.

Member of the Year

The Member of the Year is a person who has given exemplary service and beneficial efforts and actions to the association as well as to protein and food distribution overall.

Requirements: All members of the National Protein and Food Distributors Association in good standing are eligible, except for previous winners.

Lifetime Achievement Award

Regarded as the highest honor bestowed by NPFDA, this award recognizes an individual who has profoundly and significantly influenced the protein industry. This person has played a major leadership role and may be involved in the processing, distributing or marketing segments of the industry.

Requirements: This award is open to a leader in the protein industry as a whole (inclusive of NPFDA but not exclusive). They do not have to be a NPFDA Member.

To nominate someone, please complete and email the form below, or simply send an email with your nomination details, to Cece Corbin, President, cece@npfda.org. The deadline to submit nominations for this year's awards is November 11, 2022.
