

What is NSCP?

The National Society of Compliance Professionals is a professional membership organization for compliance professionals in the financial services industry. NSCP membership offers a wide range of compliance resources, continuing education, and regulatory advocacy. NSCP provides members with essential information on compliance topics, regulatory insights, and useful tools, including its premier compliance publication, online and in-person events, interactive online forums, and comprehensive resource library. NSCP members have access to a diverse community of compliance professionals who willingly share their knowledge and expertise.

What is NSCP dedicated to?

- Education: providing helpful information, new insights, and practical tools for compliance application at all learning levels.
- Communication: voicing the questions and concerns of the compliance community to regulatory authorities.
- Collaboration: cultivating a diverse, equitable and inclusive networking organization where members share their knowledge and expertise with one another.
- Participation: promoting member involvement and the exchange of new ideas, best practices, and useful tools.

NSCP not only gives members the tools and resources they need to be successful in their compliance role, but advocates for them as one voice at the highest regulatory level, consequently benefitting not only the NSCP community, but the entire compliance industry as a whole.
