

Growing with NWIR

How will membership in National Women in Roofing help me succeed in my current position?

National Women in Roofing is a wise investment for females that have a role in the roofing field. At NWIR, our passion is helping women learn, grow, succeed and build a network of peers that will enable them to thrive in this industry.

As an employer, you may wonder about the return on investment for a member of your team belonging to NWIR. If providing opportunities for personal and professional development are something you strive for, NWIR is the perfect partner. Whether it's monthly webinars, networking opportunities through a local chapter (council) or discounted access to intense education at our annual conference, we ensure that our members are empowered and prepared for success in their current role!

Be inspired by the knowledge, creativity, and heart in our industry!

Access to mentors that can help you with personal and professional growth.

Virtual and in-person education classes that enhance skills and productivity

Grow personally as you learn from others and strengthen your network!
