

Sign up for Electronic Ordering via Pubeasy or Pubnet!

Benefits of Electronic Ordering

- More convenient: order on your schedule, 24/7
- Faster: no hold times, faster order processing
- More accurate: less manual entry so fewer typos

What are the Prerequisites?

- Electronic orders works best with accounts on credit terms, though you may be able to use prepay accounts with Hachette or Penguin Random House.
- If you currently have a prepay account (credit or debit card) with another supplier, please contact the supplier for a credit application.
- If you don't qualify for credit yet with the supplier, set a calendar reminder in 3-6 months to apply again.

Which Service is Right for Me?

- If you use an EDI-capable point-of-sale (POS) system on this list, sign up for our Pubnet service, which supports these suppliers.
- Otherwise, sign up for our web-based Pubeasy service, which supports this subset of suppliers.

How Much Does it Cost?

- Pubeasy is completely free.
- Pubnet has a $75 setup fee and requires a Standard Address Number (SAN). MVB can provide you a SAN for free (a $150 savings!). There are no ongoing subscription fees.

I Qualify, How Do I Get Started?
