Americas Print Show – Putting the Spotlight on Building the Print Community with a Women In Print Luncheon

June 1, 2022 (Columbus, Ohio)

Americas Print Show (APS22) is hosting the Women in Print Luncheon on Thursday, August 18th at the APS22 industry show in Columbus, Ohio. Print professionals from coast to coast will gather to connect, collaborate, celebrate, and influence the future of print. Whether you are production, purchasing, design, sales, marketing, management, operations, or do all of the above, join us once again to connect in person and strengthen professional relationships, global partnerships, and our print community.

The luncheon is the perfect time to connect with peers and influencers! Honored guests include top 2 Girls from Girls Who Print - Deborah Corn, of Print Media Centr (and Girl #1)– also known as the Intergalactic Ambassador to The Printerverse and Kelly Mallozzi, (Girl #2) owner of Success In Print and APS22 presenter.

Deborah is the mastermind behind Girls Who Print, the world’s largest online network of women in the printing industry – with 8500+ global members. Girls Who Print champions mentorship programs, events, awards, and other opportunities to support women in the industry. She will also be at APS22 exhibit hall SnapChat’ing with attendees, exhibitors and speakers throughout the three-day event.

Before or after the luncheon, please visit the exhibition floor to see demonstrations of the latest in print technology and trends from our exhibitors Canon, Ricoh, Kodak, and dozens of others, including sponsors DPS (Digital Print Solutions) Print IQ, MillCraft Paper, Pitney Bowes, WestCamp, and Xeikon.

Attendees will have the opportunity to take home lots of valuable printed gifts, including limited edition student-designed t-shirts via the Print & Graphics Scholarship Foundation annual competition, limited edition books, and a reusable bag from Millcraft to carry it all!

Join us – Connect. Collaborate. Community. Celebrate!
