

PRESS RELEASE

Richmond Virginia: Effective date July 1 2024

B.W. Wilson Paper Company, a 120-year-old family-owned wholesale paper distributor, is announcing the opening of its newest distribution center in Savannah, Georgia. The new facility is located at the Pooler Distribution Complex, 5250 Old Louisville Road, Building 4, Pooler Georgia. This new warehouse will allow the company to service the fast-growing area of Savannah and surrounding markets. Printers of Copy Papers, Fine Paper, envelopes, industrial packaging as well as wide format media can now experience the superior level of service that B.W. Wilson has been offering its customers since 1904.

The Savannah facility will service the printing community as well as state and county municipalities from Columbia to Charleston, South Carolina to Jacksonville, Florida and as far west as Augusta and Macon Georgia. The Savannah facility will be able to provide clients with access to timely deliveries of over 10 million pounds paper from 9 strategically placed and interconnected warehouses stretching from Pennsylvania to Florida.

Our century-old service is enhanced by the commitment of our valued mill partners that provide the finest products in the industry, both domestic and foreign. Clients can rely on B.W. Wilson for timely deliveries of known and valued brands of paper in cut-size, digital, folio and web roll sized products.

Text and cover, envelopes, carbonless papers, synthetic print media, pressure sensitive label, web rolls, wide format, and office supplies will all be offered to this new market area.

After a customer is successfully onboarded, orders can be researched and placed via the client portal www.bwwilson.com or by contacting one of our professional customer service representatives 800-868-2868. Our service platform includes free delivery on the next scheduled delivery date. Customers are always welcome pick-up orders during regular business hours.
