A la Carte Activities—add on options for all registrants

Whiskey Tasting (Sunday at 7:30 p.m.) - $50 per person. After dinner at the Red Stag Pub, enjoy a guided tasting of premium Scottish, Irish, and American whiskeys in the Red Stag's atmospheric great room. A certified whiskey ambassador will lead this fun and educational tasting. Transportation is on your own.

Rise and Fall of Bethlehem Steel Walking Tour (Monday at 2:30 p.m.) - $20 per person. Explore the history of the massive industrial company that produced steel for iconic projects like the Golden Gate Bridge, Hoover Dam, and Empire State Building. This is a walking tour, and therefore may not be suitable for all attendees. Questions regarding accessibility please visit the Historic Bethlehem Tour Information website. Transportation is on your own.

A la Carte Activities (continued)—add on options for all registrants

The National Museum of Industrial History (Monday at 2:30 p.m.) - $20 per person. Housed in the former Electric Repair Shop of the Bethlehem Steel plant site on the vibrant SteelStacks arts & culture campus, the National Museum of Industrial History interprets industry past, present and future through dynamic exhibits, hands-on interactives and engaging programs. As is the nature of a museum, there will be a lot of walking and standing, and therefore may not be suitable for all attendees. Questions regarding accessibility please visit The National Museum of Industrial History website. Transportation is on your own.
