

The Future of Clinical Psychological Science: The Inaugural Society of Clinical Psychology APA Division 12 Conference

Conference Vision

SCP (APA/Division 12) is a leader in defining empirically supported psychological treatments and assessments. The goal of this inaugural conference is to convene professionals and trainees who are passionate about this area for a weekend of dialogues about the future of clinical psychological science and the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead.

Schedule and Continuing Education

- Feb 1, 2024: Early & Mid-Career Institutes
- Feb 2, 2024, 8 -5 pm: CE Programming
- Feb 2, 2024: 8-10 pm: Social Event
- Feb 3, 2024, 8-12 pm: CE Programming
- Feb 3, 2024, 12-1 pm: Award Ceremony
- Poster sessions throughout conference
- 13 hours APA Approved CE available!

FEATURED SPEAKERS

DR. BARBARA O. ROTHBAUM

Emory University, School of Medicine

"Innovations in the Treatment of PTSD"

DR. MICHAEL W. OTTO

Boston University

"Update on Exposure Therapy: Mediators, Moderators, and Mechanistic Science"

DR. VONETTA DOTSON

Georgia State University

"Advancing Brain Health Equity in an Aging and Increasingly Diverse Society"

DR. JENNIFER L. TACKETT

Northwestern University

"The Future of Clinical Psychological Science is Diverse, Transparent, and Interdisciplinary"

SCAN OR FOLLOW THE
LINK TO LEARN MORE

<https://div12.org/scp-conference/>