FAQ'S

- What are the requirements for being on a SWFAA Committee? Must be a SWFAA member in good standing.
- Can Supplier Members also be on committees? Absolutely!
- How much meeting time will I have to commit? Core Committees will meet at a minimum of quarterly with Event Committees & Sub-Committees meeting more frequently as events approach. Most meetings are under one hour and are facilitated via Zoom.
- How much other work is involved? It really depends on the committee. For events, you will need to be present and available on event day. For other committees, you may be asked to research issues, communicate with and visit members.
- What if my life gets too hectic to handle my commitment later in the year? We appreciate your initiative, but completely unpredictability in our industry. If you frequently miss meetings or are unable to fulfill your obligations, just let us know!
