TOP REASONS FOR JOINING A SWFAA COMMITTEE

- CAREER DEVELOPMENT: “Most top industry performers have, at sometime, been involved in their local Apartment Association.”
– Harry Heist, HWW
- PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT: Follow your passions, share and develop your talents.
- STEPPING STONE: Being involved on committees is a launch pad, should you have interest to be on the SWFAA Board of Directors in the future.
- MAKING FRIENDS & CONNECTONS: Network with other industry professionals.
- HAVE A VOICE: Be an influencer in important Association business & decision-making.
- HAVE FUN: Volunteering on committees does require time, work & commitment, but is also fun & rewarding!

FAQ'S

- What are the requirements for being on a SWFAA Committee?
Must be a SWFAA member in good standing. We welcome first time volunteers!
- Can Supplier Members also be on committees? Absolutely! We need your input!
- How much meeting time will I have to commit? Standing Committees will meet at a minimum of quarterly with Event Committees meeting more frequently as events approach. Most meetings are under one hour and are facilitated via Zoom.
- How much other work is involved? It really depends on the committee. For example, for events, you will need to be present and available on event day along with other footwork prior. For other committees, you may be asked to research issues, communicate with and visit members.
- What if my life gets too hectic to handle my commitment later in the year?
We appreciate your initiative, but completely understand the unpredictability in our industry. If you frequently miss meetings or are unable to fulfill your obligations, just let us know!

This committee is for you if you enjoy communicating with your industry peers & partners regularly & includes:

- Networking with members & prospects via phone, email, social media and in-person visits- great for supplier partners!
- Updating & contact info changes in the market including management changes, property sales, new construction, etc.
- Help promote all SWFAA events & initiatives
- Be an Association Ambassador at events
- Build a committee of future leaders!

Have a passion for event planning or learning more?
Event committees will involve you in all decisions & facilitation of epic SWFAA events!

- Venue, food & beverage, theme, décor, vendor selection and more!
- Promote sponsorship & ticket sales
- In some cases, you will need to be available for the full day on show day for setup & breakdown (*denoted by * below*)..`
- Build a committee of future leaders!

Events include:
