CODE OF ETHICS

We, members of the Tennessee Association of Chiefs of Police, recognizing our responsibility to the communities we serve and our obligations to society in general, and with the knowledge that our profession requires the highest ideals and rules of conduct, hereby adopt the following code of ethics for police executives and commend them to all persons in the police profession for their guidance:

1. We will put honesty, truth and justice above all other considerations, and we will not allow friendship, enmity, social positions, political influence, nor personal motives to sway us from the impartial performance of duty.
2. We will neither solicit, nor accept, any gift, privilege, favor or advantage from any persons that will place us under any obligation to overlook any violation of the law or will violate the ethics of our profession.
3. We will observe all provisions of the Constitution of the United States and the State of Tennessee and will not deprive any person of any right guaranteed by these great documents. We will, at all times, endeavor to carry out the desires of the majority of citizens as legally expressed through proper legislative, judicial or executive channels of government.
4. Having efficient police leadership as our objective, we recognize the need for professional fitness on the part of police executives and subordinates. We pledge ourselves to advance the science of police service through training courses and other methods adequate to meet the many requirements of our profession.
5. We will be fair with subordinates, showing only the favor that has been honestly earned by meritorious service to the public; demanding that all police officers perform their duties and enforce the laws with impartiality, judgment and courtesy.
6. Recognizing the mutual dependence of all law enforcement and other public agencies, we pledge our cooperation to all officials and agencies interested in the promotion of justice and the improvement of the general welfare. We will not allow envy, jealousy, nor any other motive to interfere with such cooperation.
7. We recognize our responsibility to the press of Tennessee as a medium through which the public we serve can be kept informed of our activities and we solicit its support of all honest police endeavors and its condemnation of any act or policy detrimental to the best interests of society.
8. We desire training for the professional development of each department as a means of improving law enforcement for professional recognition.
