

TAM 2022 Waco - March 22 - 25, 2022

---

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2022

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Making Your Museum Energy Efficient Step-by-Step

Ann Fortescue - International Museum of Art & Science | Amelia Whitehead Rose - International Museum of Art & Science

Learn to develop a plan for energy use and conservation for collections care practices.

---

THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 2022

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM

Digitizing Untold Stories

Joy Summar-Smith - Dr Pepper Museum & Free Enterprise Institute | Eric Ames - Baylor University | Stephen Sloan - Baylor University

Examine the current collections at Baylor's Institute for Oral History and the Black Gospel Music Project.

1:30 PM - 2:30 PM

Building Trust, Stewarding Tribal Histories

Margaret Koch - Bullock Museum | Matthew Davila - Standing Rock Sioux

Connecting with and establishing relationships with American Indian tribal entities in a responsible and trustworthy way is a necessary part of collections management in the 21st century.

3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Your Hunt, Your History: Leveraging Digital Tools to Engage the Community with Local History - Workshop

Stephen Sloan, Regina Wenger, & Ella Hadacek - Institute for Oral History, Baylor

University

Learn how to historically engage your community in a fun and interactive way using the lessons learned from the recent Waco Founding Scavenger Hunt.

---

FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 2022

9:30 AM - 10:30 AM

Exhibit Upgrades on a Budget

Audrey Ladd - Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum | Shelly Crittendon - Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum | Rachel Smith - Rogers Historical Museum

From identifying priorities and resources to creating more inclusive exhibit content, see how to upgrade exhibits on a shoestring budget.

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Turning Lemons into Lemonade: Making the Most of Collections Conundrums

Rebecca Ingram - Brazos Valley Museum of Natural History | Olivia Moore - East Texas Oil Museum | Stephanie Klemm - Star of the Republic Museum

Explore case studies of Texas museums that found the silver lining in challenging collections conundrums.