

VAM Conference

AT A GLANCE

The Virginia Association of Museums conference is an annual event that brings together museum professionals, students, volunteers and vendors from across the Commonwealth. Join us and become a part of the VAM family!

Our attendees

450 multi-generational professionals and volunteers representing administrators, educators and collections staff

27% of attendees have been in the field less than 5 years

30% of attendees have been in the field more than 15 years

Our Vendors

97% of our attendees spend time in the exhibit hall

65% of attendees discuss a project with vendors

"VAM presents a truly important resource in the Exhibit Hall."

The exhibit hall is "Always the center of the conference"

What our attendees say:

The conference was wonderful as usual! VAM treats it's members like royalty and we appreciate it very much! You are organized, thorough and always welcoming! Thank you for all that you do!

This was my first time and I loved it far more than I had expected. I can't wait until I get to attend my next VAM conference!!
