

Welcome

to the Preservation and Museum Community

Town Hall on Civil War Monuments

(Edit title as applicable)

Date

(insert)

Sponsored by (insert)

Goals

- An open, constructive discussion about Civil War monuments
- Create a document for delivery, and to be made available to, decision makers and legislators including but not limited to, the Monument Avenue Commission, Mayor of Richmond, Governor of Virginia

The Rules of Civility

- We are here today as colleagues with a set of common concerns
- Please be mindful that we are in a public space
- Please be respectful of each other
- Please turn off cell phones
- No video or audio recording
- Do not speak out of turn or talk over the current speaker

Process for this meeting

- Each speaker has three minutes.
- Nothing said this afternoon is for attribution.
- Each speaker represents him- or herself, not the institution where he or she is employed unless expressly stated.
- You may introduce yourself, or you may choose to remain anonymous.
- Please use the microphone.
- Please direct your comments to the topic.
- Please do not interrupt, applaud, or otherwise comment on any speaker.
- Do not broadcast this event through social media; turn off phones.
- Please remember that there is an open comment question at the end of our time together, for any topics not covered.
- ...And most importantly, we don't have to agree with each other, but we do have to be civil.

TOPIC 1

Does moving the monuments about the Civil War change their historic value?

If so, what are the implications for the statuary itself, the historic districts in which they are located, and the locality as a whole?

(Or, Insert Topic/Goal)

In the interest of time, please try not to repeat statements made by previous speakers.

TOPIC 2

(Insert Topic/Goal)

In the interest of time, please try not to repeat statements made by previous speakers.

TOPIC 3

Is there any other advice or questions that you would like to share?

(Or, Insert Topic/Goal)

In the interest of time, please try not to repeat statements made by previous speakers.

Share Your Thoughts

- If you would like to provide additional comment on one of these questions feel free to email your comments to (insert) at (insert email) or complete a card located at the back of the room.
- You can send your thoughts directly to decision makers at:
  - <http://www.generalassembly.gov>
  - (Insert local legislators or others applicable to your community or goal)