

Robert Russa Moton High School students went on strike in 1951 to protest unequal school conditions. The students in the 1954 composite are some of the student strikers. Moton staff particularly wants to preserve the composite from the 1954 Brown v. Board decision year. The photos are attached by student names, so it is vital to reattach photos to keep students identified.