ICEBREAKER

“AI Knows Me” (5–10 min):

Objective: Show how AI mirrors your communication style.

Activity:

- Have each participant ask ChatGPT (or your AI tool):
“Describe my leadership style based on this short paragraph about me:”
- (Then write a paragraph or copy from your LinkedIn bio or professional intro.)
- Then compare your AI’s summary with how you see yourself.

Debrief: “What surprised you? What was spot on?”

Example Prompt:

"You are an executive coach. I need help crafting a message to my team about a change in company policy. My goal is to be transparent but encouraging. The team is nervous about recent layoffs. Make it empathetic but confident."

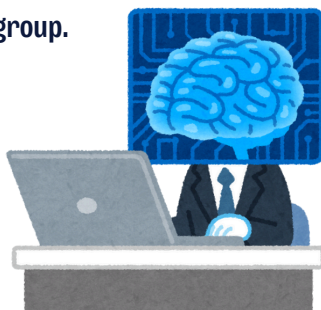

AI IN ACTION

“Fix My Communication” (20 min)

Objective: Rewrite a real message using AI.

Steps:

- Pull up a recent message or correspondence that you want to use as a sample of your writing (email, team update, difficult convo, pitch).
- In pairs, use the C.O.A.C.H. Prompt Framework to ask AI to rewrite it.
- Compare original vs. AI-enhanced version.
- Document your findings & share with the group.

LEADERSHIP LAB

“Roleplay with AI” (15–20 min)

Objective:

Practice challenging convos with AI as your rehearsal partner.

Roleplay Activity:

Pick a leadership scenario:

- Giving feedback
 - Motivating a low-performing team member
 - Making a tough announcement

Prompt AI:

- “Act as a team member. I’m a manager giving you feedback on missing deadlines. Let’s roleplay.”
- Participants take turns practicing live, then reflect:
- “What did I learn about my tone, clarity, confidence?”
