Fiesta 9

Class will be led by Eileen Simoneau with Chart it All and is appropriate for all skill levels. (Beginners welcome!) Mats are provided.

Mindfulness Workshop

FRIDAY,
MARCH 6

Preregistration is required.

7:30-8:30 a.m.

Coronado F

Mindfulness In Aviation, a one-hour workshop presented by Carl Eisen, a retired Airbus captain and UCLA trained mindfulness teacher. Those with and without mindfulness experience are welcome.

Zumba Class

SATURDAY,

Preregistration is required.

7-8 a.m.

Fiesta 6

Zumba is a dance aerobic workout that features Latin music that makes you want to move. Make sure you're wearing workout attire and bring a willingness to have a blast. Join Capt. Kelly Jeffries for a one-hour "flight" around the world.

Professional Development Seminars

Sponsored by XOJET

Seen! Increasing Your Visibility and Influence

Presented by Carlann Fergusson, owner of Propel Forward LLC

THURSDAY, MARCH 5 • 8:30-11:30 a.m. • Fiesta 5
(preregister, ticket required)

This interactive session will focus on strengthening skills necessary to successfully influence the outcome of team goals or objectives. You will develop effective "currencies" and communication skills needed to promote partnership and engagement with teams.

Leadership: How to Direct and Motivate Others

Presented by Dr. Janette McMurtrie

THURSDAY, MARCH 5 • 2-4 p.m. • Fiesta 5
(preregister, ticket required)

Learn what makes a great leader: how to manage and motivate others with skills and tools that work, understand what makes a person tick, and how to use their gifts to meet your goals and agenda.

Minute Mentoring®

Sponsored by Walmart Aviation

THURSDAY, MARCH 5 • 9-10:30 a.m. • Coronado C (preregister)

Students and young professionals are hungry for advice from women who want to offer guidance and suggestions by sharing their experiences. Minute Mentoring® brings the two groups together in an efficient and effective program. This fast-paced session, similar to speed dating, matches professional leaders who want to share their life experiences with future female stars.

Sexual Harassment—What to Do, Where to Go

Presented by Kathy Yodice

FRIDAY, MARCH 6 • 2-4 p.m. • Fiesta 6

A panel discussion and private conversation about the aviation industry issues involving sexual harassment. We'll review how sexual harassment is seen in the aviation environment, whether in training, at work, or at events. We'll identify what to know, what to do, and where to go to address the situation. We'll hear from experts on sexual harassment and its impact in our aviation community. Then, we'll break into small groups for questions and to learn more from the individual member.

Aerospace Educators Workshop

Sponsored by Walmart Aviation • Presented by FAA AVSED Team

THURSDAY, MARCH 5 • 9 a.m.-noon • Coronado F (preregister)

With a predicted shortage of skilled employees for the growing number of aerospace jobs, it is important that we develop programs that inspire students to pursue aviation careers. Join us in this interactive workshop where we will share simple, hands-on activities that can be brought into the classroom to teach aviation STEM skills. You will also hear from VIP guest speakers in the aviation community.

WAI, Let's Do It Together!

Coronado C

Moderated by John Espinosa

Panelists: Kelly Boodell, Joyce Davis, and Doug Lane

Embracing and leveraging diversity through an inclusive culture fosters innovation, new ideas, and broad perspectives both in understanding a dynamic workforce and our approach to challenges and opportunities. This session will engage in an open dialogue for development of next level approaches to improve female participation in the aviation industry.

Using Scholarships and Local Resources to Get Your Aviation Training

Coronado F

Presented by Shana Bartell

See how a single mother of five children who is working toward pilot and A/P mechanic certificates does it. She will share her experience funding aviation training, explaining how to find, organize, and apply for these scholarships.

Striking a Balance

Durango 1

Moderated by Meaghan Camp. Panelists: Brandi Bernard
King, Maroc Fassel George, Heather Kelly, Tara Traynor Cook

Balancing military aviation, a civilian career, and a family is difficult; it is not impossible. During this session, women who are juggling all three will answer questions and share the tools they use to perform this balancing act. Happy, healthy headspaces are what we all strive for and through this panel you may come to realize you can have it all.

What Is Dispatch?

Fiesta 4

Presented by Elizabeth Hunt

United States scheduled airlines are required to have FAA-licensed aircraft dispatchers. What does an aircraft dispatcher do? Come learn about the profession and how dispatchers keep you safe, and ask questions.

An Aviation Marriage

Fiesta 5

Presented by Dr. Janette McMurtrie

Hands-on personal development workshop uses storytelling, group discussions, and activities to take the audience on a journey of discovering what it means to lead with transparency, what the benefits of transparent leadership are, and how they can cultivate transparency to achieve personal and business goals and objectives. Transparency is a key building block of efficient and successful teams and organizations.

Strategies for Work-Life Balance as an Airline Pilot
Durango 1

Moderated by Kandy Bernskoetter

Panelists: TBD

This panel will focus on real-life examples of women who are successfully balancing family obligations and enjoying a career they are passionate about. Integral to the discussion is recognizing that the support of a partner, family, and the community helps to create a positive synergy.

Commercialization of Human Space Flight
Fiesta 4

Presented by Melanie Weber and Louis Atchison

Learn about the return of the human space flight launch capabilities on Boeing's CST-100 Starliner. Hear from two engineers who not only helped design this spacecraft, but also plan to launch with astronauts aboard.

Developing True Grit
Fiesta 5

Presented by Susan Bartlett and Roshanda Ronco

On the other side of struggle is satisfaction and inner strength. The best version of yourself is buried deep inside, and is only revealed by facing challenges and developing grit. Learn that all of us are afraid sometimes, and we all feel lonely, but those feelings can be overcome.

Visiting Greatness: Interviews With American Fliers
Fiesta 7

Presented by Irv Broughton

Author of 20 books, Irv is a major chronicler of American life. He will talk about his experiences interviewing fliers and others, and read and show several clips from interviews from Where the Wings Grow: Conversations with Pioneering Women Pilots (Amazon/Kindle).

Let Your Career Take Flight Through Coaching
Fiesta 9

Presented by Lisa Callahan

This session will help you identify your behavior style and the behavior style of others to provide meaningful motivation and developmental feedback. Look at the concept of building beliefs and how your beliefs about yourself influence your achievements. Learn how to expand our belief boundaries to allow personal growth through coaching.

The Importance of Allies in the LGBTQ and Women Communities
Monterrey 1

Panelists: Natascha Fuller, Kiersten Orrick, Susan White, Melissa Ward

An interactive and empowering discussion facilitated by four prominent women in aviation, sharing their stories and answering questions highlighting how they've been impacted and supportive of the LGBTQ community, which is a pillar to their success in aviation. Learn how to be an ally to the LGBTQ, female, and minority communities. You won't want to miss this session!

Congrats, Lacey!

Republic Airways congratulates Lacey Needham, the winner of the 2020 Republic Airways “Nothing but Blue Skies” Aviator Scholarship awarded through the Women in Aviation International scholarship program.

“This award is such a blessing!” Lacey said. “To know that a company like Republic Airways wants to support me through my training as well as give back to its community is why they are a remarkable company. This scholarship is monumental in helping me achieve my dreams of being an airline pilot. I am so incredibly honored and grateful.”

The WAI scholarship program, which has awarded over $12 million since 1995, helps female aviators achieve their goals and realize their dreams. Republic is proud to be part of this program in support of women in aviation. We look forward to Lacey’s future success!

FRIDAY GENERAL SESSION SPEAKERS

Barbara Barrett
Secretary of the U.S. Air Force

Barbara M. Barrett is the 25th secretary of the Air Force and leads the affairs of the Department of the Air Force, comprising the U.S. Air Force and U.S. Space Force. She is responsible for organizing, training, equipping, and providing for the welfare of 685,000 active-duty, Guard, reserve, and civilian airmen, and their families. She oversees the Air Force's annual budget of more than $205 billion. As Secretary, she directs strategy and policy development, risk management, weapons acquisition, technology investments and human resource management across the global enterprise. As the department's senior leader, Secretary Barrett implements decisions of the President, Congress, and fulfills Combatant Commanders' operational requirements.

Joan Robinson-Berry
Boeing Global Services
Vice President & Chief Engineer

Joan Robinson-Berry is vice president and chief engineer for Boeing Global Services (BGS). As Global Services' engineering leader, Joan is responsible for strengthening Boeing's enterprise engineering expertise and encouraging a companywide approach to meeting customer, business, and operational priorities, with an emphasis on safety, quality, and integrity.

Previously, Joan was vice president of Engineering, Modifications & Maintenance for BGS, providing worldwide support to government and commercial customers across all of Boeing's product lines and capability offerings. In that role, she was responsible for fleet engineering services, modifications to aircraft, logistics products, and support, aircraft on ground (AOG) services, maintenance, repair, and overhaul (MRO) facilities, and forward base deployment with operators around the world.

FRIDAY LUNCHEON

Eileen Collins
NASA astronaut

Col. Eileen Collins was selected to be a NASA astronaut in 1990. In February 1995, she was the first female to pilot a shuttle mission. Eileen graduated in 1979 from Air Force Undergraduate Pilot Training and was a T-38 instructor pilot until 1982. She was selected for the astronaut program while attending the Air Force Test Pilot School at Edwards AFB, California. At the time of her induction, Eileen had logged more than 4,000 hours in 30 different types of aircraft. She was the first female pilot commander of a space shuttle, who retired on May 1, 2006, to pursue private interests, including service as a board member of USAA.

SATURDAY GENERAL SESSION SPEAKERS

Stephanie Chung
JetSuite President

Stephanie Chung brings 30 years of experience to the role of president of JetSuite Inc., where she oversees all aspects of the company, including sales, marketing, revenue management, performance, and guest services. She is the first African American to lead a major private business aviation company. Prior to joining JetSuite Inc., Stephanie founded a successful consulting business where she provided professional coaching and training to high-level executives. Prior to that, she served as vice president of sales, Western Region of Flexjet, and held various executive sales positions with Skyjet.

She started her aviation career in the 1980s with Piedmont Airlines and then progressed through various roles at US Airways before entering the private aviation field.

Maj. Gen. Jeannie Leavitt
Commander of U.S. Air Force Recruiting Service

Maj. Gen. Jeannie M. Leavitt is the commander, Air Force Recruiting Service, Joint Base San Antonio-Randolph, Texas. She has served in a variety of flying, staff, and command assignments and has commanded at the flight, squadron, and wing level. A breaker of barriers her whole career, in 1993, she became the first female fighter pilot flying the F-15; and in 1998 became the first female fighter pilot to graduate from fighter weapons school; in 2012 she became the first woman to command a combat fighter wing; and again as she took command at the 57th fighter wing at Nellis Air Force Base. She will be inducted into the WAI Pioneer Hall of Fame in 2020. (See Page 40 for more info.)

Amber Smith
Combat Helicopter Pilot

Amber Smith's career consists of over 15 years of experience in senior levels of government, a presidential administration, strategic communications and public affairs, as well as multiple combat tours as a light attack/reconnaissance helicopter pilot and air mission commander where she led missions in Iraq and Afghanistan. She is the author of Danger Close: My Epic Journey as a Combat Helicopter Pilot in Iraq and Afghanistan.

A former OH-58D Kiowa Warrior helicopter pilot-in-command and air mission commander in the 101st Airborne Division, Amber is a combat veteran of both the Iraq and Afghanistan wars. She also flew aerial security in 2008 for Air Force One.

Maj. Gen. Jeannie Leavitt

Maj. Gen. Jeannie Leavitt's Air Force career has spanned more than 25 years. She has flown more than 3,000 hours including 300 hours of combat flight with operational experiences in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Dedicated to lifetime learning, Jeannie has obtained four master's degrees in addition to her undergraduate degree in aerospace engineering. For the 2019 film Captain Marvel, Jeannie worked with the production team to coordinate Air Force assistance in accurately portraying female military pilots.

Graduating first in her Air Force pilot training class at Laughlin Air Force base in December 1992, Jeannie became the first female fighter pilot on the F-15E Strike Eagle. She continued to break barriers and became the first woman fighter pilot to graduate from fighter weapons school at Nellis Air Force Base in 1998, and then again when she became the first fighter pilot instructor at the weapons school. In 2012, Jeannie became the first woman to command a combat fighter wing when she took command at the 4th Fighter Wing at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base. Following her subsequent assignment as principal military assistant to the secretary of defense at the Pentagon, she then took command of the 57th fighter wing at Nellis Air Force Base. In 2016, Jeannie was promoted to the rank of brigadier general and was promoted to a second star in 2019. Today she serves as the commander of the Air Force Recruiting Service out of San Antonio, Texas.

Patty Wagner

Patty Wagner is an air show legend, multi-rated pilot, and a devoted WAI volunteer. In 2019, Patty received the FAA Master Pilot Award for demonstrating professionalism, skill, and aviation expertise for 50 years.

Her father first introduced Patty to aviation after he took her to the airport for a ride when she was young. Sadly her dad passed away, and she promised her mom she wouldn't pursue flying. She waited until she was 18 years old to take flying lessons. In the process of earning her private pilot certificate, she fell in love and married the airport FBO manager, Bob Wagner. Patty continued to fly and earned her commercial, glider, and seaplane ratings. She started flying commercially as a ride pilot taking passengers up in vintage WACO open cockpit biplanes.

With her husband, Patty started an air show wing-riding act called A Girl on the Wing. Six years after that first flight, the couple decided to go on the air show circuit full-time, and have flown in all 50 states and performed in 47 states, as well as British Columbia, Quebec, every Canadian province in between, and in South America.

After retiring from air shows, Patty volunteers her time to many aviation organizations including the WACO Historical Society. She also continues to serve on the boards of Aviation Trail, OX5 Aviation Pioneers, and the Moraine Airpark in Ohio.

U.S. Army's First Women Rotary Wing Aviators

Lieutenants:
Sally Murphy
Linda Horan DuMoulin
Susan Dunwoody Schoeck
Beverly Birkholtz
Warrant Officers:
Jennie Vallance
Diane Dowd
Susan Boring
Lavern Fransworth
Mary Reid

U.S. Army's First Women Rotary Wing Aviators is a group of nine female helicopter pilots who represent the first women in rotary wing aviation to serve in the U.S. Army. These four lieutenants and five warrant officers proved women had a place in military aviation and blazed the trail forward for future generations of Army women. They include lieutenants Sally Murphy, Linda Horan DuMoulin, Susan Dunwoody Schoeck, and Beverly Birkholtz, and warrant officers Jennie Vallance, Diane Dowd, Susan Boring, Lavern Fransworth, and Mary Reid.

In September 1973, the first Army female entered the Officers Rotary Wing Aviation Course at the U.S. Army Aviation Center in Fort Rucker, Alabama, resulting in Lieutenant Sally Murphy receiving her wings on June 4, 1974.

The next year, five women entered the Warrant Officer Aviation Program at the same location. These women followed the same academic, flight, and physical training programs as the men.

During the 1970s, these women displayed the pioneering spirit, persistence, and courage to earn their place in U.S. Army aviation. Their tenacity and determination to overcome obstacles helped immeasurably in gaining successful acceptance and integration of women into U.S. Army aviation.

These nine women sacrificed potential success of proven career paths in other specialties to accept the risk of a new and extremely challenging road filled with countless obstacles. None of these women had the benefit of being assigned with other female aviators providing support, encouragement, or advice.

Support the Endowment Fund

The Silent Auction is online at WAI2020 and all the proceeds go to support the WAI Endowment Fund. All WAI members will have the opportunity to view the 2020 auction items and read item details. Bidding starts Thursday, February 27, at 8 a.m. EST and ends Saturday, March 7, at 1 p.m. EST..

[www.32auctions.com/
WAI2020](http://www.32auctions.com/WAI2020)

Why online? The Silent Auction is the single largest fundraiser for WAI scholarships and educational projects. By allowing all members to bid on items, WAI increases the potential to raise more funds for these important programs.

How it works: Items are listed online at www.32auctions.com/WAI2020. Members request to join the auction and view the items. This is a sign-up process. While you'll be able to view items for months prior to the conference, you'll only be able to bid on the items during a 10-day period just prior to and during the conference. When the auction goes live WAI will notify all members, and the auction site will notify members already enrolled.

Will items be at the conference? We anticipate that most items will still be available to view at the conference, but all bidding will be conducted online.

What if I win and I'm not at the conference? Simply pay shipping from WAI headquarters in Ohio to your location.

Is bidding anonymous? Only the auction coordinators know who is bidding on what.

- As a registered bidder you'll be notified if you've been outbid.
- You can set up an auto bid. You determine how much you want to spend and the program will automatically bid the minimum bid increment for you until your maximum bid has been reached.
- The bidding for an item will be extended three minutes when a bid is received within three minutes to closing. There is a maximum 30-minute extension.

Uber

Our team is working toward transforming the world through aerial ridesharing at scale. Imagine soaring above congested ground traffic. With Uber Air, this future is closer than you think.

Meet the Uber Elevate team at booth 339 and experience our vision of the future.

Lunch With Patty Wagstaff

Patty Wagstaff is a six-time member of the U.S. Aerobatic Team and has won the gold, silver, and bronze medals in Olympic-level international aerobatic competitions. She is the first woman to win the title of U.S. National Aerobatic champion and one of the few people to win it three times. Patty, one of the world's top air show pilots, flies thrilling, low-level aerobatic demonstrations before millions of people each year. She is an inductee of the National Aviation Hall of Fame and WAI Pioneer Hall of Fame, and the recipient of numerous awards for her flying. In 2013, she established the Patty Wagstaff Aerobatic School in St. Augustine, Florida, located at Southeast Aero, the U.S. distributor for the Extra Aircraft.

Earn the WAI Aviation Fun Patch, meet women with careers in aviation, test your aeronautical skills, and lots more!

Designed for girls ages 8 to 17, Girls in Aviation Day Orlando is a fun-filled day planned to introduce aviation, or expand a growing interest. The girls will interact with amazing role models ranging from airline pilots to aircraft mechanics to aviation industry executives. They'll learn about robotics, go on a navigation chart scavenger hunt, build their own styro-foam airplanes, fly a simulator, build an airport, learn to use tools by making wire bracelets, and lots more hands-on activities.

The cost for the day is $10 (which includes lunch), and attendees must be accompanied by an adult. Chaperones and parents are invited to take part in lunch for $10.

Preregistration is required. Register online at www.WAI.org/girls-aviation-day-orlando.
