

WAI Members Now Receive 5% Discount from Avemco® Insurance Company

New member benefit

Women in Aviation International today announced a new member benefit. Avemco® Insurance Company now offers a 5% discount to all WAI members. This new member benefit is effective immediately in most states and will be a boost to the hundreds of WAI members who own and rent aircraft.

“With all of us trying to keep our flying affordable, this discount from Avemco® will help stretch our flying budgets a bit more,” says WAI President Dr. Peggy Chabrian. “We thank Avemco® for recognizing our commitment to safety and partnering with us to provide this new benefit.”

WAI members may easily claim their 5% discount. If applying on line for an insurance quote, simply type WAI in the box asking if someone referred you to Avemco®. If applying by telephone for an insurance quote, all a WAI member has to do is mention their WAI membership, and your Avemco® representative will provide details on current availability and how this WAI benefit impacts your individual premium.

“In addition to the intangible benefits of WAI membership such as mentoring and camaraderie, we strive to provide our members with tangible benefits including our scholarship program as well as discounts on goods and services which adds value to membership,” adds Dr. Chabrian.
