THE WASHINGTON REAL ESTATE COALITION

The Washington Real Estate Coalition is an alliance of nearly twenty real estate organizations in Washington State. WREC exists to foster communication and action on governmental affairs issues of concern to the real estate industry.

WREC began in 1996 and has no formal by-laws, officers, or dues. The Coalition is organized by a collective group effort.

The Washington Real Estate Coalition meets once or twice each year to identify areas of agreement or potential conflict between our respective organizations and their legislative and regulatory priorities. Where consensus exists, we leverage the collective influence and resources of our partnerships to affect the best interests of our industry and community. Where conflict exists, we endeavor to resolve such conflict before interacting with government officials on our issues.
