The History of WEB Network

WEB is a national network representing more than 25 professions and 30 areas of expertise within the pension and benefits industry. The organization was started in Washington, D.C., by a group of benefits professionals who gathered monthly to share their professional experiences. Today, with 19 chapters and 1600 members, the WEB Network is committed to helping define the role of the benefits professional in the 21st century.

WEB's Mission

The mission of WEB is to participate in the on-going education and development of employee benefits executives by providing the most current benefits related information in a collaborative environment. WEB is committed to helping define the evolving role of the benefits professional in the 21st century. As changes in legislation, technology and market forces reshape the profession, products and delivery systems, WEB will continue to develop programs, educational opportunities and services to help its members meet the demand of the challenges ahead.

About the WEB Dallas Chapter

The Dallas Chapter of the WEB Network holds 10 monthly educational and networking luncheon programs typically on the last Tuesday of each month. Our monthly meetings have been consistently well attended over the past five years, representing decision makers and influencers from every aspect of the employee benefits arena. Topics have included:

- Legislative and Regulatory Updates
- Health Care Reform
- Wellness Programs
- Employer Perspectives on Consumerism and CDHP's
- Benchmarking and Surveys
- ERISA Fiduciary Responsibilities
- Successful Benefit Communications
