

VERMEER VISITOR CAMPUS AGREEMENT

For my protection and that of Vermeer, I give my signature below as my acknowledgement that, in exchange for access to Vermeer's premises, I agree to the following:

1. I may be given access to proprietary information belonging to Vermeer as a result of my access to Vermeer's premises.
2. I understand and acknowledge that Vermeer's proprietary information consists of valuable information and materials not generally known by Vermeer's competitors, including:
 - a. Confidential information related to the purpose for the visit that one Party discloses to the other or that can be derived from that information or copies of the information, regardless of whether it is transmitted electronically, orally, visually, or physically.
 - b. Business and marketing plans, budgets and financial results, employee or contractor lists, business methods or procedures, research, technical or engineering information, formulas, designs, blueprints, trade secrets, patent applications, software development tools, pricing, sales data, prospect and customer lists, dealer information, and terms of commercial contracts.
 - c. Anything that a Party clearly and conspicuously designates in writing as "Proprietary" or "Confidential."
3. I will hold in the strictest confidence any proprietary information that is disclosed to me.
4. I will not remove any document, equipment or other materials from the premises without Vermeer's written permission.
5. I will not photograph or otherwise record any information to which I may have access during my visit, unless expressly authorized by Vermeer.
6. This Agreement is binding on me, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns and inures to the benefit of Vermeer, its successors, and assigns.
7. This Agreement, together with any other agreement between Vermeer and myself, my employer, or my affiliated company, constitutes the entire understanding and agreement among the parties.
