

Women in Manufacturing (WiM) is leading the charge to not only highlight, but also foster the growth of women in the industry. Through a diverse array of conferences and events, WiM actively addresses topics that range from career advancement to effectively balancing the demanding roles of motherhood and caregiving. WiM's conferences and events have been designed to accelerate professional development, hone leadership skills and share industry updates.

Winter Leadership Conference

February 17-18, 2025 Clearwater Beach, FL

Who should attend? Corporate member company representatives

This in-person event is an exclusive benefit for WiM's National Board of Directors and corporate member company representatives to discuss and determine solutions to common industry challenges, network and exchange ideas, and walk away with tangible next steps to improve their workforce attraction, engagement and retention.

Men as Allies

February 19 – 20, 2025 Clearwater Beach, FL

Who should attend? This program is intended for men and those who support the development and advancement of women in industry

This conference will provide a thought-provoking platform to discuss the critical role of men as allies in manufacturing. Knowledge experts will present evidence-based data and real-world examples to demonstrate the benefits of gender diversity and inclusion in the manufacturing industry.

WiM West

March 10, 2025 Seattle, WA

Who should attend? Anyone in manufacturing, especially those who are based in the western region of the United States

This full-day conference features informative and interactive sessions that allow participants to gain access to key industry content shared by regional thought leaders.

Moms in MFG Virtual Conference for Caregivers

May 8, 2025 Virtual

Who should attend? Parents and caregivers in the manufacturing industry

This virtual event provides support for mothers and caregivers and offers an opportunity for them to establish connections, exchange valuable insights and gain access to customized resources tailored to the unique experience of being a mom or caregiver in manufacturing.

Summer Leadership Conference

July 24, 2025 Virtual

Who should attend? Corporate member company representatives

Corporate member company representatives convene virtually to network and develop actionable steps to improve workforce attraction, engagement and retention.

WiM Hall of Fame Reception

October 11, 2025 Chicago, IL

Who should attend? Anyone attending WiM SUMMIT and individuals who would like to celebrate trailblazing women in manufacturing

This reception highlights the achievements of trailblazing women in the manufacturing industry. Through this recognition, WiM acknowledges the significant contributions made by Hall of Fame inductees and showcases their success and impact on women in the industry.

WiM SUMMIT
