

Thank you for serving as a WIM Champion and helping your colleagues take advantage of your company's Women in Manufacturing (WIM) membership.

One of the most valuable benefits available to employees is WIM SUMMIT 2026, taking place October 7–9 in Las Vegas and virtually. This year's conference will bring together more than 2,000 manufacturing professionals for learning, networking and professional development.

To help you promote the event internally, we've created a few ready-to-use resources:

- An internal chat message
- A newsletter article
- A sample email to share with employees and colleagues
- Official conference logo and graphics
- A digital slide for breakroom TVs, monitors and digital signage
- A flyer that can be printed or shared electronically

This year's theme, ALL IN, focuses on leadership, talent, technology and workforce transformation. Thank you for helping connect your team to this valuable opportunity.
