Bio

Shoals native, Angela Hacker, is a singer/songwriter that came on the scene at the age of 13. She began working with the legendary Rick Hall at Fame recording studios in 2005, and has been writing, singing, playing, and recording for herself as well as lending her talents to countless others through the years since. Angela became a household name in 2007 when she won the top prize on the hit tv show Nashville star. She is compared to the likes of Bonnie Raitt and Janice Joplin, but Angela hones a style that is completely her own when she takes the stage...crossing multiple genres everyone is sure to enjoy.
