

Baninder Kaur

Baninder Kaur, a seasoned manufacturing professional with 14 years of experience, joined Xometry two years ago after dedicating 12 years to Protolabs ; where she specialized in injection molding, CNC, and 3D printing. Educated at the University of Leicester, she established the groundwork for her successful career. Recognized for her proficiency in manufacturing processes, Baninder is esteemed as a skilled consultant, driving advancements in the industry. With a fervor for innovation and dedication to excellence, she consistently delivers impactful contributions.